Judging Standards

The judges, whose decisions are final, will carefully evaluate each piece with attention to originality, design, execution, finish, artistic presentation, composition, and artistic effort demonstrated.

Eligible carvings are those executed from the wood or bark of a tree. The only exception is (C30 Non-wood carved pieces).

Other materials are allowed in a support or subsidiary function or as a structural support.

Stone, nuts, seeds, and gourds are allowed in C 30 only but will not compete in the best of show.

Parquetry, intarsia is not eligible for entry.

Class Definitions

Youth: (Green class designation) Ages 11-16

Novice: (Red class designation) Beginning carvers who have carved for less than 4 years and have not won more than six (6) blue or red ribbons in the Novice Class.

Intermediate: (Yellow class designation) Those carvers who have carved for four (4) years or more, and who have won less than six (6) blue and/or red ribbons in the Intermediate Class in previous years.

Open: (blue class designation) All other carvers entering competition.

Competition Rules

Only the signed work created solely by the entrant is eligible for competition.

1. A maximum of six carvings per carver per category. NOTE! (N or P) designates a subdivision of the category .
2. Each piece entered must have the permanent signature or mark of the artist. The signature must be covered until all judging is completed.
3. Carvings can be no more than two (2) years old, and not shown in a PWCC show in the same class. See check off blocks on the registration form. PWCC will refuse any entry deemed to be in poor taste.
4. The Registration Chairman (or designee) has the sole responsibility of determining suitability for admission.
5. Entries are submitted at the sole responsibility and risk of the artist. PWCC, Official Show Committee and /or PWCC members are not responsible for damage or loss from any cause.
6. All carvings entered in each category will be judged against other entries in that category. Awards will be issued accordingly.
7. The first, second and third place entries of all four classes (a total of twelve carvings) will be moved to a designated table for the BEST OF SHOW JUDGING. After the BEST OF SHOW judging the carvings will be returned to their proper division and class.
8. All artists are responsible for the assignment of their carvings to the correct category. No carving may be moved after judging has begun.

9. All entries must have a tag with the carver/entry number displayed on the carving ,before it is placed on competition tables. Numbered tags will be provided and placed on entries at check-in.

10. Use of molded inserts for fins, antlers, wings or beaks is not permitted. Molded eyes and molded feet are permitted in all classes.

11. The decisions of the judges and show chairman are final.

12. Carvings that have previously won a blue ribbon in Sculptures and Designs in Wood may not be entered in competition in 2009.

13. Categories will not be combined regardless of the number of carvings in a category.

14. Entries may not be removed from competition prior to the end of the show. All entries must be checked out at the end of the show by the entrant or their designee.

15. Painted finish: A carving is considered painted if any portion of the carving is painted. Colored washes or paint which obscures the grain are included in this category.

16. Natural Finish: A carving is considered a natural finish if the grain shows through the finish. Natural finished pieces may be stained, textured, or burned to accentuate the detail but the grain of the wood must be visible.

17. Carvings from rough outs, are accepted as C23 ONLY and may not be judged in the Best of Show.
