

The Piedmont Woodcarvers Club, Inc. proudly presents
Sculptures and Designs in Wood
30th Annual Carving Competition and Show

First Annual

PWCC Honors Carving Contest

Honoring Wood Sculptor

John Moore

Founding Member of Piedmont Wood Carvers Club
Nationality Acclaimed Award Winning Wood Sculptor
Instructor, Judge, Historian and several times Past President
Mentor and Friend

Prize: 1st Place wins 50-50 split of contest entry funds.

Winner get 50%. Remaining 50% donation to Show Expenses

How does it work:

- $10 per each registered Blank wood (2x2x6 inch bass wood)
- Each blank is numbered on the bottom and signed out to carver at membership table
- Contest registration any time after show registration begins
- Carve any subject, style, finish, but only from supplied wood blank
- Carve any time up until deadline
- No names or identifying markings (except registration number)
- Need not be present to win
- Deadline 3:00 PM on Sunday of show.
- Judging 3:00 Sunday of show (before raffle begins)
- Contest honoree or his/her designate picks winners
- First Place Winner wins 50% of total contest entry money
- Ribbons for first, second, third awarded

Need something to do when you go back to the hotel?

Going to a carving show and need something simple and quick to carve during the show?

Honor a beloved man that has promoted and inspired the art of wood carving to generations of carvers.

Participate and support the show and art of wood carving.

Need to fill those down times during the show?

Need more time to complete a contest carving?.